

To FCC Board,

As a user of high-precision GPS in my surveying business, I oppose LightSquared's request. Please do not affirm its license and its request to go forward with its plan as it can interfere with my ability to make a living. This will not only effect my industry, but could effect the military and security of our country.

Thank you for your consideration on this very important decision that the FCC has the opportunity to stop.

Randy Mosley